

REVIEW

for the educational-professional program Medicine of the second (Master's) level of higher education in the specialty 222 Medicine in the field of knowledge 22 Health at Poltava State Medical University

Quality training of higher education students in the field of medical services in modern conditions worldwide is an important and responsible task. Of particular importance is the need to train qualified physicians capable of creative thinking and continuous self-improvement, stable provision and maintenance of competitiveness in the labor market.

The educational and professional program is logically composed. It defines the purpose, objectives, content and general and professional (special) competencies. The study of disciplines is consistent. The plan, schedule of the educational process, the list and scope of compulsory and elective disciplines fully comply with the structural and logical scheme of training higher education students in the specialty Medicine and help ensure compliance of program learning outcomes with the expectations of higher education students and the needs of potential employers.

Thus, analyzing the presented educational-professional program Medicine of the second (Master's) level of higher education in the specialty 222 Medicine in the field of knowledge 22 Health at Poltava State Medical University, it can be concluded that the content, structure of the program allows to use it to train specialists in higher professional and general levels.

Director of the FNsP Zilina, days 18.02.2022

Fakultná nemocnica s poliklinikou Žilina riaditeľstvo
Ul. V. Španyola 48
012 07 Žilina
31

MD. Eduard Dorčík